

Frequently Asked Questions

- Where do I watch the live classes? On Zoom
- Are the classes recorded? Yes
- How do I access the recordings and when can I view them? You access the recordings using an online course page, and you can view them whenever you want, as often as you like.
- Will there be reference material? Yes, there will be optional reference photos and templates or you can use your own.
- Do I paint during the live session? You can, however, I recommend doing your work after the live session. You'll have a week following the live session to do the homework at your convenience, and you'll have the recording to watch which you can pause while you paint.
- Can I ask questions during the class? Yes
- Are there critiques? Yes, there are weekly recorded critiques of all class work. Note, I don't use names during the critique.
- How long do I have access to the recordings and class reference materials? You will have access to all class recordings and reference materials for at least a year after the class ends.
- What if I have to miss a class? No problem, you can watch the recording of the missed class and catch up when you have a chance.
- What if I have a difficult schedule? There is an independent study version for each class. You view the recorded video released weekly at your convenience, do your homework, email it, and view the recorded critique.
